MAHUKONA TELLS OF HILO METEOR

A WIRELESS MESSAGE DESCRIB-ING A WONDERFUL VISION IN THE SKY.

Manager Cross of the Wireless Telegraph Company received the following message last night from Mahukona:
"A brilliant meteor passed over Hilo this a. m. The direction was from south to north. It was seen as early as four and as late as five-forty. The trail resembled steam or smoke from a skyrocket, and was steel blue. As it passed it made a rumbling noise, and spook dwellings in Hilo to some extent.
The meteor was plainly visible from Naalehu at five thirty and residents believed it to be from the volcano."

TO SPEND LIFE IN PRISON.

Associated Press, Morning Service.

DESPERADO HULSE HELD.

Associated Press, Morning Service.
BAKERSFIELD, Cal., April 30.—The coroner's jury after a long inquest over the remains of William Tibbett and Marshall Packard, who were killed in the final battle with outlaw "Jim" Mc-Kinney, returned a verdict today in which they hold Al Hulse, the outlaw's companion as partly responsible for the murder of the two men. There is a great deal of excitement here, but the police think they can keep Hulse from the crowd and that the law will be allowed to take its course.

The police charge that Hulse was in the same room as McKinney in the Chinese joss house at the time of the battle between the outlaw and the police and say that he fired some of the shots that caused the deaths of the two officers. When caught by the police he was heavily armed.

GLOATS AT OUR NAVAL DISASTER

GERMAN PAPERISTS LAUGHY BE-CAUSE AMERICA SENDS NAVY TO KIEL.

BERLIN, April 30.—Although a "tempest in a teapot," the resentment aroused throughout Germany, in the public and in the press, by the latest alleged American incursion to the Emperor in ordering the American squadron to greet President Loubet after the first rejection of the invitation to Kiel, is increasing daily. No doubt the whole matter is properly understood in official circles. Nevertheless popular indignation manifests itself by bitter philippics against America, both in the metropolitan and provincial press.

The Berliner Neueste Nachrichten, in a leader this evening, waxes furious and declares that Germany and the Emperor are being made the laughing stock of the whole world and that the sinking of the American squadron to Kiel is another piece of evidence that the German empire has lost the respect it formerly enjoyed among the nations.
It pictures the indignation resulting from American partiality, prevailing among all political parties from right to left, and declares that all German people are offended.

"Notwithstanding the efforts of official journals to show there is no ill-feeling and that all is moving correctly," says this journal, "such statements only inspire amusement. Even though we may wish to maintain a calm attitude the American squadron question must leave a bitter taste."

The Berliner Tageblatt indulges in a still more bitter tirade. Its correspondent in New York reports that the Kearsarge, the Alabama and the Illinois are not to be sent to European waters because they are unseizable and the Tageblatt sarcastically comments as follows:

"This refers to the squadron which Emperor William invited to Kiel. If the ground on which the squadron is not sent over is correctly stated, this is another remarkable illustration of the boastfulness with which Americans recently compared their fleet with European navies. It was to have served as an ocular demonstration how comparatively powerful the American protected ships are in radius of action.
This squadron was to have maneuvered in Portuguese waters and sailed back to America without taking shot."

Other leading journals, the Vossische Zeitung and the National Zeitung, comment in a similar strain.

The incident reveals how easily the German press allows itself to be led into giving vent to anti-American sentiment, although laboring under a misapprehension and still apparently unable to realize that the American Mediterranean squadron and that now in the Gulf of Mexico are not the same.
Government officials understand the situation, but are apparently unable to restrain the innuendoes of the press.

Is Able to Walk Around.

CHICAGO, April 18.—Dr. Adolph Lorenz, the Austrian specialist, arrived in Chicago today for the purpose of removing the cast from the leg of Lolita Armour, the young daughter of J. Ogden Armour, upon whom an operation for congenital dislocation of the hip was performed last October. Upon removing the cast the limb was found to be in perfect condition and the patient was able to walk around the house without difficulty.

"The operation was a complete success," said Dr. Lorenz, "but I shall have to be in constant attendance for three or four weeks before I can be certain of a positive cure."
